

Request for Dissemination of Organizational Materials at International Orthodox Theological Association Conference

In the spirit of our mission of promoting international collaboration and the exchange of knowledge in the world of Orthodox scholarship, IOTA welcomes the dissemination of approved materials regarding the mission and purpose of Orthodox nonprofits or equivalent organizations, including seminaries, at our inaugural conference in Iasi, Romania, 9-12 January 2019. In order to receive approval to disseminate such materials, please submit this form to the IOTA Secretary, Dr. Carrie Frederick Frost (secretary@iota-web.org), by January 2, 2019. No fee is required for dissemination of an approved organization's materials.

The undersigned acknowledges that the organization's materials will consist of such things as pamphlets, brochures, and business cards explaining the mission and purpose of the organization. Discursive materials on topics other than the mission and purpose of the organization are not permitted.

Such materials will be left unattended in a place deemed appropriate by the IOTA Secretary in the conference area. If an organization wishes to host a manned booth at the conference or participate in our Organizations Session, please explore this and other sponsorship opportunities on our website.

IOTA reserves the right to remove any organization's materials at any time, if its officers determine that the material is contrary to the common good of the conference.
