

Registration for Organizations Session at International Orthodox Theological Association Conference

Wishing to provide a venue to showcase the worthy endeavors of Orthodox nonprofit or equivalent organizations, including seminaries, we invite them to become Co-Laborer Organizations with IOTA (1 Cor. 3), which will allow them to participate in our IOTA Organizations Session. In this session, each organization will receive an eight-minute slot in which to explain and promote its mission and vision. In addition to being approved to disseminate mission-explanatory materials in the main conference area, the Co-Laborer Organizations will be able to distribute their materials at this session. The fee for Co-Laborer Organizations is $325. In order to receive approval, please submit this form to the IOTA Secretary, Dr. Carrie Frederick Frost (secretary@iota-web.org) by December 5, 2018. Once your application is approved, you will then be billed.

The undersigned acknowledges that the organization's materials will consist of such things as pamphlets, brochures, and business cards explaining the mission and purpose of the organization. Discursive materials on topics other than the mission and purpose of the organization are not permitted. IOTA reserves the right to remove any organization's material at any time, if its officers determine that the material is contrary to the common good of the conference.

In addition to being made available at the Organizations Session, such material will be left unattended in a place deemed appropriate by the IOTA Secretary in the conference area. If an organization wishes to host a manned booth at the conference, please explore this and other sponsorship opportunities on our website.
